I. Introduction:

Sree Kandukuri Veeresalingam Theistic Government Degree College, Rajamahendravaram, popularly known as S.K.V.T. College, over the past five decades, has carved out a niche for itself in imparting quality higher education to scores of learners and earned the confidence of all its stakeholders, especially its student community and their parents by providing a positive and conducive learning environment to the students. The bottom line is to roll-out inquiring minds with focus on research driven, innovation led creative, work-ready globally competitive graduates from the portals of this institution. Shaping the future of the learners by equipping them with required skills, knowledge and right attitudes and graduate attributes is the sole objective of the institution. To realize the vision and mission, the institution has embarked upon the outcome-based education system with focus on employability skills. It strives hard to unleash the hidden potential of its learners through conduct of host of curricular and extended curricular activities. The institution serves as Launchpad for its students to place them in the higher orbit of global talent pool.

For realizing these objectives, besides effective academic and administrative strategies, an effective code of conduct and policy statements are also necessary for any institution.

II. Need for the code of conduct

Students, being the future citizens, are expected to maintain the highest standards of discipline and behave in dignified manner inside as well as outside the College campus duly uplifting the esteem of the college.

The code of conduct sets out certain standard of conduct expected of students. It makes students conduct themselves in such a manner where institution's values and principles are respected, civility, inclusiveness, diversity and opportunity are valued and contribute positively to the institution and society. It holds the students responsible for their misbehavior, rule violation, irresponsibility and failure to fulfilling their duties in the teaching-learning process and other process.

It not only outlines the rights of the students but also makes them abide by the rules and regulations of the college. Further, it ensures that no student is penalized except for violation of established rules and regulations enshrined in the policy documents.

III. Applicability :

1. The code of conduct of the college applies to all students who get enrolled in all programs the college offers from the academic year 2025-26 both inside outside the campus.

IV. Availability of Code of conduct: The Code of conduct is specified in terms of policies and regulations.

A) General Regulations

• Working schedule begins with Prayer song:

1. The working day of the college commences every day in the morning at 9:30 A.M with recital of National song through the mike and classroom communication System.
2. The class work is scheduled between 10:00 A.M and 5:00 P.M during all the working days.
